ACROSS

- 1 Does the Queen's train stop here, to buy some pens and paper (9)
- 9 Sounds like this rod is a German one, good for a bite (6)
- 10 A piano, it's a little French one, of course (8)
- 11 This clergyman has not prostate problems and a docked tail (6)
- 12 It's 50-50 Peter was shot (6)
- 14 After one hundred you can barge through it (4)
- 15 Chews this I hear, even with numbers (5)
- 16 Cut off the East and it will not bend (6)
- 18 The sailor and the lawyer head East to the ship, it's a sore point (7)
- 21 He was let out, even around the sheltered side (7)
- 24 It's back to back, to casually play the French horn (6)
- 26 As it were, in the present after nothing at all, in a dry place (5)
- 30 After being quiet, this nobleman came out of his shell (4)
- 31 For an ingenious plan, use less than a cleaver (6)
- 32 Near around dry, but never shut up (6)
- 33 I see you have got the evening paper in your arms to shield you (8)
- 34 South and Albert, sounds like a soul with straps (6)
- 35 Honorary with fifty and he knows nothing (9)

DOWN

- 2 A priest on the tear, useful if the beer runs out (6)
- 3 Sing so high, a true-blue with no ewes(6)
- 4 This patio to the East, has come from a garden of poppies (6)
- 5 Loosen XI, I hear and then had a meal, to climb up (7)
- 6 After the eruption has gone cold, is this the degree of an old sailor? (6)
- 7 The single lady has an attempt, I hear, and it was thrown out by a judge (8)
- 8 She was a red-hot bet to get a ring (9)
- 11 Grateful after the fathers, with an Italian meal (5)
- 13 This ellipse sounds as if it hasn't one from around the mouth
- 17 Malice, this feline has it back in the Loch (9)
- 19 The lawyer is making a trip to gather information (8)
- 20 Don't shake the bard and lose his tail, just to make this point (5)
- 22 This liar travels back by train (4)
- 23 Flipper, sound like an aged Finn around (7)
- 25 Tolerance, a little Scottish and not a cleric about (6)
- 27 The lawyer is in need of a bit of a turn to the East (6)
- 28 To the south-east Albert met the Queen and he makes an impression (6)
- 29 Dirty, sounds like I am back in the beer (6)
